Sec 41 (Insurance Act)

Prohibition of Rebates in Insurance: Key Points

Offering or Accepting Rebates:

No individual is permitted to offer or accept any rebate on the commission or premium for taking out, renewing, or continuing an insurance policy in India. Only rebates published in the insurer's official prospectus or tables are allowed.

Prohibited Inducements:

Offering rebates directly or indirectly as an incentive to purchase or renew an insurance policy is strictly forbidden. Similarly, policyholders are prohibited from accepting unauthorized rebates.

Insurance Agent Exception:

An insurance agent can accept a commission on a policy taken for their own life without it being considered a rebate, provided they meet the conditions proving their bona fide employment by the insurer.

Compliance Requirement:

All individuals involved in the sale, renewal, or purchase of insurance must adhere strictly to these provisions to avoid violations.

Penalty for Violations:

Any breach of these regulations can result in a financial penalty of up to ₹10,00,000.
